Dominium Announces Acquisition of Florence Park Apartments

Substantial Renovations and Updates to be Completed in 2015

MINNEAPOLIS —July 2, 2015 — Today, Minneapolis-based Dominium announced the acquisition of the 88-unit Florence Park apartment building in Florence, Ariz. Dominium plans significant renovations to the site including interior and exterior water conservation updates, a remodel of the clubhouse, new cabinets, appliances, and counters.

“Dominium is a leader in the industry for successful management of rental properties,” said Brooke Eyster, marketing analyst for Dominium. “We are excited to be adding Florence Park to our growing portfolio of properties in the southwest, including Arizona. The investments we are making to renovate and update the property will benefit residents and the neighborhood.”

Florence Park apartments was built in 1999. Dominium finalized acquisition of Florence Park in April, 2015.
