Dominium Adds Gwendolyn Williams as Marketing Waitlist Specialist

MINNEAPOLIS – February 26, 2016 – Dominium, a leading apartment development and management company, today announced that it hired Gwendolyn Williams as a marketing waitlist specialist. Williams will be managing the waiting list for pre-qualified housing applicants. Other duties will include writing and distributing digital marketing materials.

Prior to her hire at Dominium, Williams worked in Disability Determination Services as a disability examiner trainee for the State of Minnesota – Department of Employment and Economic Development. She also worked for the Dakota County CDA as an office support assistant.

Williams earned her bachelor's degree in mass communications – broadcast journalism from Minnesota State University - Moorhead. She was a national Emmy recipient from the Midwest Chapter of Television Arts and Sciences for the Broadcast Documentary Class production of "Walk into the Wild." Williams started her new position with Dominium on January 25, 2016.

In her free time Williams enjoys swimming, hiking, camping, and hosting dinners. Gwendolyn currently resides in St. Paul.
