Willamette Gardens Acquired by Dominium

Acquisition is Dominium's First Property in Eugene Area

MINNEAPOLIS —July 27, 2015 — Today, Minneapolis-based Dominium announced the acquisition of the Willamette Gardens apartment complex located in Eugene, Ore. Willamette Gardens was built in 2007 and includes six buildings and 240 apartments.

“We are thrilled to be entering this new community,” said Paul Sween, co-managing partner at Dominium. “We have made a substantial investments in the interior, exterior, and landscaping surrounding the building. We are committed to being a good neighbor and responsible member of the Eugene community.”

Dominium finalized acquisition of Willamette Gardens on June 10, 2015. Renovations to the interior of the property include new LED lighting, new painting and new carpeting throughout. External renovations include siding repair and painting.
