Dominium Hires David Schlosser as Property Accountant

MINNEAPOLIS – September 12, 2016 –

Dominium, a leading apartment development and management company, today announced that it has hired David Schlosser as a property accountant. In his new role, David will be producing monthly financial reports for multiple properties, approving invoices for payment, and working with community managers to ensure a professional environment for residents.

David received bachelor's degrees in biology and accounting from Minnesota State University, Mankato. Previously, he worked at Westport Properties and provided monthly financial reporting for 20 properties as well as company record management. David currently resides in Inver Grove Heights, Minn. and enjoys watching the Twins and spending time outside biking and hiking.
